

Course Name	Course Code	Semester	T + P	Credit	ECTS
History of Atatürk's Principles and Revolution II		8	2 + 0	2	3

Prerequisite Courses	Nona
----------------------	------

Language of Course	Turkish
Course class	compulsory
Coordinator of Course
Instructor
Course Assistant
Objective of Course	Our young state, the Republic of Turkey Constitution and this finds expression in the constitution Atatürk out with nationalism, linked to national values, free, democratic and respectful of the secular state order, is to educate the faithful to the qualities brought by the Republic and the Republic.
Course Learning Output	To be able to explain the main themes of Turkish progress and revolution with historical process
Course Contents	Revolution concept and the reasons that led to the Turkish Revolution, Misak-i Milli Turkey Grand National Assembly, Independence War and the Lausanne peace, internal and foreign policy of the Republic of Turkey.

Weeks	Topics
1	The end of the Turkish War of Independence and provide peace efforts
2	Turkey' the political treaties defining the limits
3	Turkish / Atatürk Revolution of properties
4	Political, Social, Education, Culture, Law
5	Turkish Revolution Fundamentals of Thought
6	Ataturk's Principles
7	MIDTERM
8	Republicanism, Nationalism
9	Populism, Secularism
10	Statism
11	Revolution
12	Kemalism / Kemalist Thought System
13	Kemalism is how a system of thought?
14	Kemalism opinion-related comments.
15	FINAL EXAM

General sufficiency
Have a basic level of knowledge of history of the revolution
References
one. Prof.dr.hamz to Eroglu, the Turkish Revolution History, London, 1982
2nd. The delegation Atatürk's Principles and Revolutionary History, Higher Education publications, Ank.1989
3. Ord.prof.dr.env Ziya Karal, Osmar. History, 5.6.7.8.cilt, Ank.1983
4. Hikmet Bayur, xx.yy Turkishness History and Its Impact on Policy of Acer's, Ank.1989
Assessment
Midterm exam: 40% Final exam: 60%; Project evaluations that homework can be made at the beginning of the semester.